CONVEYOR BELT TRAINING

To help you get the best operational life from your conveyor belt, at Wire Belt we offer either a remote or an on-site training service dependent on your location.

This will aim to help you master the perfect set-up, identify your belt, belt joining, and troubleshooting in order to boost productivity without having to worry about your belts breaking down.

- Identifying Flat-Flex® belts
- Reasons why wire belts can fail
- Cleaning and sanitising considerations
- Belt splicing demonstration and practice
- Installation checklist
- Troubleshooting guide
- Technical support
